HIP! HIP! HOORAY

For the Boys who went away

WILL J. WHITE
Arr. by Jules Brazil

Marcia

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction marked 'Marcia' and 'ff' (fortissimo). The piano part consists of a simple, rhythmic melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The vocal part enters with the lyrics 'Now ev-e-ry one to-day Wants to The ver-ses are rath-er light And the You seem to have caught the rhyme I must find a sim-ple way Their true re-spects to pay For the cho-rus short and bright But we all will take de-light In say you're do-ing fine And your sing-ing is sub-lime You're im- Boys who went a-way, And there's no-thing like a song, To be sung by ev-ry sing-ing it to-night, You're a hap-py lock-ing throng, I'm not going to keep you prov-ing ev-ry time, But be-fore I go a-way I just want you all to throng So here to-night we will start it right By sing-ing a chor-us song long But I want you all to join with me In sing-ing this chor-us song say That you and your moth-er and sister and brother Will sing loud and long each day

"WELCOME"

Welcome, Welcome, that's a Mother's prayer.
Welcome, Welcome, you hear it everywhere.
Many a long and weary day
Mother has passed since you went away,
But she's waiting with a welcome for you there.

"Welcome is a lifting Waltz refrain, and it expresses the hope of millions.

"The Hearts of the World" Love Canada

The hearts of the world love Canada,
They're admired the whole world o'er,
And those hearts love the men of Canada
For bravery in this War;
And the hearts of the world praise Canada.
With her prairies and stately trees,
Yes, the hearts of the world thank Canada,
From pole to southern seas.

"The Hearts of the World" is the sweetest story ever written. Its melody is stately and possesses an irresistible swing.

"Hats Off to the Flag and the King"

It's the flag that will protect us,
It's the dear old red, white and blue;
For we'll live for it, we'll die for it,
For our home and our country, too;
So come boys, give three British cheers,
And let your voices ring.
Whil'at the Maple Leaf is our emblem dear,
Hats off to the Flag and the King.

"Hats Off To the Flag and the King" has an excellent group of words with a superior martial air.

"FLYING"

Flying, Flying, 'way up in the air,
Always a smile and never a care,
Thousands of miles from ev'rywhere.
Spoonin', honey moonin', what a joyous flight!
No more trouble and no more care
When you're Flying 'way up in the air.

"Flying" is a haunting waltz melody which fascinates with every additional hearing.

"TAKE ME BACK" TO DEAR OLD CANADA

Take me back, take me back,
Take me back to dear old Canada,
Where the wild Canadian rose
And the four-leaf clover grows.
Take me back, take me back
Where the crimson creeper climbs,
And the morning glories twine 'round the vine.
Take me back to Canada.

This Song needs no introduction. It is now one of the biggest Hits on the market.

"HOME AGAIN"

Home again! Home again!
That's the song we love to sing;
Gather round, gather round,
Come, let your voices ring;
We'll sing the old-time melodies,
The songs that bring back memories;
Home again; Home again!
That's the song of the world to me.

"Home Again"—featured by The Shrapnel Dodgers and other returned heroes, is the best home song ever written. The sale of this song has broken all Canadian Records.

KEEP WATCH

Keep watch, keep watch,
Sailors of the sea, keep watch.
Whether calm or gale, forward on they sail,
Knowing that they must keep watch.
Keep watch, keep watch,
Yes, the sailors of the sea keep watch.
Britannia's the pride of the ocean;
God bless the men who still keep watch.

The famous Canadian sea song, 35 cents per copy. Its rollicking words and rollicking music make it Frank Oldfield's (the popular baritone) favorite song.

HIP, HIP, HOORAY

Hip, hip, hooray, for the boys who went away,
They are jolly fellows, bright and gay;
Ta ra ra, everybody here give a real good cheer
Hooray, hooray, for the boys who went away.

Its cheery words and cheery music make it the best of cheery songs, and the catchiest of One-steps.
